

CAUSE NO. E-184784

RECEIVED

PRK ENTERPRISES, ET AL.

VS.

GOOGLE.COM, ET AL.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF
JEFFERSON COUNTY, TEXAS

172ND JUDICIAL DISTRICT

REQUEST FOR FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Pursuant to Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 296, an Interested Party who anonymously operates the weblog Operation Kleinwatch respectfully requests that the Court file findings of fact and conclusions of law for the following judgments from a hearing on January 15, 2010:

- Order denying Respondents' Motion to Quash Subpoenas
- Order Granting Petitioner's Request for Respondent Google to Release Information

The Interested Party files this motion pro se and is excluded from filing as an e-file document, pursuant to the Court's Order dated August 15, 2008.

The Interested Party intends to appeal these orders to the Ninth Court of Appeals. Accordingly, the interested party requests the Court file findings of fact and conclusions of law and further asks the clerk to mail copies to all parties, as required by Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 297. The Interested Party files this request within twenty (20) days of the date the Court has entered the Orders pursuant to Tex. R. Civ. P. 296.

Respectfully Submitted,

/S/
Authorized Representative Pro Se
Operation Kleinwatch
Google, Inc.
1600 Amphitheatre Parkway
Mountain View CA 94043

Cc:

Dennis Lynch
901 Main
Dallas, Texas 75202

John Morgan
Harris, Duesler, & Hatfield
550 Fannin, Suite 650
Beaumont, TX 77701

PRK ENTERPRISES et al.

VS.

GOOGLE et al.

*
*
*
*
*
*
*
*

IN THE DISTRICT COURT

OF JEFFERSON COUNTY, TEXAS

172nd JUDICIAL DISTRICT

SAM THE EAGLE'S REQUEST FOR FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

COMES NOW, the Sam the Eagle Webblog, an interested party, and pursuant to Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 296, respectfully requests the Court to file findings of fact and conclusions of law for the following judgments arising from a hearing on January 15, 2010:

Order denying Respondents Motion to Quash Subpoenas

Order Granting Petitioner's Request for Respondent Google to Release Information

The interested parties intend to appeal these orders to the Ninth Court of Appeals. Accordingly, the Interested Parties request the Court file findings of fact and conclusions of law and further ask the clerk to mail copies to all parties, as required by Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 297. The Interested Parties file this request within twenty (20) days of the date the Court has entered the Orders pursuant to Tex. R. Civ. P. 296.

Sam the Eagle Webblog is appearing pro se and as such is not required to file this Motion by E-FILE pursuant to the Courts order dated August 15, 2008.

Respectfully Submitted,

/S/

Authorized Representative
Pro Se
Sam the Eagle Webblog
Google Blogspot
1600 Amphitheatre Parkway
Mountain View CA 94043

cc: Dennis Lynch
901 Main
Dallas, Texas 75202

cc: John Morgan
550 Fannin, Suite 650
Beaumont, Texas 77701